

LEGAL DEPARTMENT

Attorney General: WILLIAM CURRAN (Democrat), Baltimore, Maryland.

William Curran was born in Baltimore City, April 12, 1885.

He received his elementary education at St. Patrick's School, Baltimore, and graduated from the Baltimore City College in 1904. Thereafter, he taught in the elementary grades of public schools of Baltimore City for a number of years while attending the night school classes of the University of Maryland Law School. He passed the Maryland State Bar examination in the Spring of 1910 and has been in the active practice of the law since that time.

Mr. Curran served in the administration of Governor Emerson C. Harrington as a member of the Board of Liquor License Commissioners of Baltimore City, in the administration of Governor Albert C. Ritchie as a member of the Board of Election Supervisors of Baltimore City and in the administration of Governor Herbert R. O'Connor as one of the Commissioners for the Promotion of Uniformity of Legislation in the United States. Mr. Curran represented the First Legislative District of Baltimore City in the State Senate of Maryland in 1914 and again in 1925; he served also as a member of the Second Branch of the City Council of Baltimore City in 1916.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

Comptroller of the State: J. MILLARD TAWES (Democrat), Crisfield, Maryland.

J. Millard Tawes, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tawes, was born in Crisfield, Somerset County, Maryland, on April 8, 1894. He was educated in the public schools of Crisfield, after which he entered the Wilmington Conference Academy. He graduated from this institution in 1912 and later entered Sadlers Bryant and Stratton Business College in Baltimore where he completed a full course in banking and accountancy. His first employment was with his father who was then engaged in an extensive lumber manufacturing business. During this time he was also associated with the active management of The Tawes-Gibson Packing Company, a seafood canning concern. Dur-